

I am going to go ahead & call this meeting to order.
I want to welcome ea of you & thank you for coming to this meeting — your presence here tonight is your demonstration of interest.

& a great big thank you to Judge Rene Haas who graciously offered her home.

Many of us, perhaps all of us have, in casual conversation w/ one another tossed about the idea of organization the local women of the bar.

Well, some 5 wks^{ago}, the individuals whose names you read in the letter inviting you to this meeting, met. You read their names, some of you may not know everyone involved so I want to introduce them at this time:

- Portia Bott
- Jeanne Chastrin
- Edna De Los Santos
- Judge Rene Haas
- Evelyn Humez
- Ann Kollmorgen
- Shirley Selz
- Judge Hilda Tagle
- Georgia Flint

What we quickly reached agreement on was to send out a letter of invitation to all women attys in the area in order that we test interest in organizing the women attorneys. Judge Tagle was instrumental in putting together a list of as many women attys as we could identify. I know we missed some & that is why we asked that you chose the announcement of the meeting. And so here we are tonight. > We meet tonight to organize formally — if that is the desire & decision of this group.

the objectives of the organization committee nominating committee, &

consensus on the next meeting date & time.

> we meet to define

> to select a bylaws > to select a

> to reach a

Some of you have to come to CC & vicinity from other parts of the state. You may be familiar w/ what women attys are doing in other parts of the state. Three persons have recently contacted representatives from other areas in order to find out more about what they are doing.

Some of this information may be helpful as we consider what type of involvement or objectives we might want to have.
